

SUMMER READING EXTRA CREDIT FORM

Students reading extra books during the summer (above the minimum required) will receive 1 point per book added to their first quarter average, up to a total of 3 points.

In order to receive credit, students must:

- list each extra book read
- respond to each book (please see directions for responding to secondary summer reading selection)
- collect requested signatures
- hand in responses to English teacher the first week of school
- share responses with classroom community

Students will be called upon to share their responses in English class when they return to school.
